

capeaqua euces mo wolloi My hore, W og garpny

Se never did get all together of, of course, that Glen Canco joujous jurie to the ca guet once more. Along S w fare (thee) well or ge have liked at least ske and find his bude Flayduke 1 Finished, he sto He notched three He was about to sa. of his eye that Bonn. the saw was making even before he heard, whock! of a helicopter the bank of the road!

ed in the ditch. Cur wisible, he drew h a helicopter came der. terrible, in-

Lighting Cit

head by a hundred to. ssed Haydake to the flew on. He squieted receding down the right-of-s rails toward the east. The wotche

AE MON.

POWET SHY

e but did not fall. The helicopter was gone 47 n, plateau walls ller than before, w minutes from th with water. er, four-hundred-foot w we gained aline swith blinding swi into an uphill trot. In the shoulders, drips from be Scanteens and slips away. Se across his shoulders, th se puckles on his gun be gless than a hundred feet. Go ating. The rain comes down,

If the cliffs. Hayduke finds the ef s back on. More lig. ning, another d -ache opene mare hours till we ge Jani Iliv powder, no warm bate let them ve seen t Country on

Word of the week

Word of the week Definition

Definition of (noun) in English: an occupation, profession, or trade.

Word of the week Synonyms occupation

commerce

company

employment

W.O.R.D.

Week

Word of the week in sentences

Most of the store's business comes from local families.

What they are doing is none of my business.

Words are a writer's business.

rattie gost, headed around a curve. B shady juniper us r pushed aside an er nearest power-line He looked up at started the chain cepeaping ence? mo molloi My here to og guipa

E MON

Loyzent Co

base of the pole.

helicopter came der. terrible, in.

The helicopter was gone 37 e but did not fall.

She gave him C

Se never did get all together of, of course, that Glen Canso lorious finale to the caguote more more. Along S it fare (thee) well or g+ have liked at least ske and find his bude n, plateau walls

-ache opene

Jani Iliv

tler than before,

w minutes from th er, four-hundred-foot w we gained aline swith blinding swi into an uphill trot. In the with water.

shoulders, drips from be

Scanteens and slips away.

Se across his shoulders, ta se puckles on his gun be gless than a hundred feet. Go

If the cliffs. Hayduke finds the ef s back on. More lig. aing, another d ating. The rain comes down, more hours till we ge powder, no warm bate

COMMET SHY He shullied thr

Flavduke 1 Finished, he sto He notched three He was about to sa. of his eye that Bonn. the saw was making . even before he heard, whock! of a helicopter the bank of the road! ed in the ditch. Cur wisible, he drew h head by a hundred to. ssed Haydake to the

THANK YOU!

a fiew on. He squinted receding down the right-of-v rails toward the east. The wotche let them ve seen v country or