Question One – select 4 true statements (4 marks)

Question Two – summary (8 marks – 2-3 points)

Question Three – language analysis (12 marks 2-3 points)

Question Four – comparison of perspectives/viewpoints (16 marks – 3-4 points, giving an opinion using evidence + because, specifically, almost as though + successfully, masterfully, explicitly, etc.)

Writing:

Question Five – non-fiction writing task: formal letter, article 40 marks

Literature

- You will be set a question about An Inspector Calls
- You will be set a question about the Power and Conflict poetry.
- We will be looking at how you can write detailed paragraphs with clear topic sentences
- Can you use because, specifically, almost as though to expand your analysis
- Do you know WHY writers have created certain effects? E.g. Perhaps Priestley wanted to teach the audience.... or criticise....
- Can you embed and contextualise quotations?

Knowing your texts well cannot be underestimated. Without knowing the stories and events in detail, you cannot write an effective response. If nothing else, make sure you know the poems and the events/characters and ideas in An Inspector Calls.

What should I do to revise and prepare for this assessment?

To prepare for this literature assessment:

1. Reread your set text: An Inspector Calls and the Power and Conflict poetry
2. Complete Educake quizzes about the texts
3. Use GCSEpod to watch key videos (You can sign in using your Office365 details)
4. Create flashcards to revisit key information from each text/ poem
5. Look at the attached Power and Conflict sample questions. For each, think about a poem you would use to compare. Annotate the poem using the steer in the question e.g. memory
6. Look at the attached An Inspector Calls sample questions. For each, think about what details from the story you would focus on to answer the question.

To prepare for this language assessment:

Use your yellow exercise books and the Pushy Parents/ Poaching articles and feedback to guide your revision.

1. We will be spending 2 lessons the first week back after half term looking at a past paper and doing a walking, talking mock. Use this to guide your revision.
2. On ShowMyHomework, use the guide to look at the past paper and we will go through another together in class.
3. Commit to memory the sentence models for the section B writing task
