Art assessment	Practical piece inspired by the artist Sarah Graham	6 hours	21 November 28 November

My Advent assessment will test my knowledge on...

Create an painting in acrylic inspired by the artist Sarah Graham.

- This term you have studied the work of Sarah Graham.
- Prior to the assessment, your teacher will have asked you to take some preparatory photographs inspired by this artist.
- During the assessment, you will spend 6 hours creating an acrylic painting based on the reference photograph/s you have taken.
- Your teacher will introduce this task in more detail in the lessons leading up to the assessment and you will have some preparation time.

The piece should demonstrate that you can:

- Show that you can develop ideas informed by contextual sources demonstrating understanding.
- Explore and select appropriate resources, media, materials and techniques.
- Review and refine your ideas as your work progresses.
- Present a personal and meaningful response showing skilful use of media chosen

What should I do to revise and prepare for this assessment?

To prepare for this assessment:

1. Continue to work hard in class and apply yourself fully.
2. Ensure that all work is complete to the best of your ability.
3. Take a good range of photographs of food products inspired by Sarah Graham – your teacher will introduce this task and show examples.
4. Ensure that you photos are submitted to Mrs Portsmouth by email or on a USB stick so that your chosen image can be printed in colour for you.
