

False

If you know a sequence is linear,
you only need 2 terms to calculate the constant difference.
Then you can calculate the next term.