This assessment will test my knowledge on...

Paper 1

Know your key words for Origins and Meaning and Judaism.

You also need to revise:

- Stewardship. Ensure you know and can develop a range of beliefs about stewardship.
- Jewish festivals. Remember to learn all four: Pesach, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot. You need to know what the festivals are, their importance and how they are celebrated.
- Jewish beliefs about the covenants. You need to know about both covenants, what they entailed, their meaning and the value of them for Jews today.
- Origins of the universe. Make sure you know the range of beliefs about the origins of the universe (where the universe came from).
- Jewish identity and daily life. You need to revise the beliefs, teachings and practices that are part of being a Jew. Is there one that is more important or necessary than another?

Paper 2

Know your key words for Good and Evil.

You also need to revise:

- The origins of evil (where evil came from). Make sure you know key beliefs about how evil came into the world. Ensure that you know sources of authority and scholars to support your work.

- The Incarnation. Make sure you know what the Incarnation means and the different beliefs that are held about the Incarnation. Make sure you know sources of authority to back up these beliefs.
- Beliefs about the nature and purpose of suffering. Make sure that you know different viewpoints about what suffering is, where it comes from and the purpose of it (if it has a purpose.)
- The person of Jesus. Make sure you know the different beliefs about who Jesus was – his nature, his purpose and his mission.

What should I do to revise and prepare for this assessment?

To prepare for this assessment:

1. Use the information on this sheet to organise your notes.
2. Use strategies such as making a mind map or using flash cards to revise the material you need to revise.
3. Ask someone to quiz you on this material or use look, cover, write, check to prepare.
4. Practice writing good paragraphs on the material you're revising. Make sure you use topic sentences, supporting information and concluding sentences.

What useful websites/resources could I use to help me prepare?

Use your handbooks and exercise book, as well as the key knowledge sheets given to you by your teacher.
