Policy Statement

- De Lisle College is committed to fostering an environment where staff, students, visitors and contractors can work and study free from intimidation, aggression, coercion and victimisation. The College is particularly concerned to eliminate all forms of harassment and bullying as it recognises that such behaviour is unacceptable, discriminatory and, in certain circumstances, also unlawful.
- All incidents will be taken seriously and could provide grounds for disciplinary action that may lead to dismissal or expulsion from the College. Furthermore, individuals who harass or bully may be subject to criminal and/or civil prosecution.
- All College staff, students, visitors and contractors are responsible for helping to ensure that individuals do not suffer harassment or bullying in any form. If, however, bullying or harassment does occur there are a number of actions individuals can take.
- All line managers, as part of their managerial responsibilities, have a legal obligation to eliminate harassment of which they are, or should be, aware. All individuals will be personally accountable for their behaviour, actions and/or lack of actions in cases of complaint of harassment or bullying.

Reasons for this policy

- Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment are unacceptable forms of behaviour and contrary to the College's aims of fostering an environment where its staff, students, visitors and contractors will be treated with dignity and respect, as reflected in the Gospel Values.
- Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment can prevent effective performance and creativity, instead causing increased illness, absenteeism, under-achievement and reduced opportunities.
- It also represents a waste of human resources and a denial of opportunity for individual fulfilment.
- There are also legal reasons for the establishment of this policy. Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment are behaviours which, if based on a person's sex, race or disability, are unlawful.

Definitions

- Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment can take many forms, often involving the abuse of power or position and may be a single event, sporadic events or a continuing process.
- Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment refer to behaviours which, deliberately or otherwise, are hostile and/or offensive to the recipient or others and which unreasonably interfere with an individual's work, academic performance or social life.
- Child on Child abuse, bullying and harassment may involve apparently insignificant acts which cumulatively create an intimidating environment that undermines the integrity or dignity of the individual. Unacceptable behaviour ranges from violence and threats to ignoring people. In all cases, child on child abuse, bullying and harassment are unwelcome and can make an individual feel uncomfortable, unsafe, frightened or embarrassed. Such behaviours may be expressed verbally or non verbally via traditional or electronic communications, or by physical actions. The common link is that the behaviour is unwanted by the recipient or others, is unwarranted by the relationship and would be regarded as child on child abuse, bullying and harassment by any reasonable person.
- Examples of types of child on child abuse covered by this policy are given below. The list is not intended to be exclusive and other issues, such as age or political belief or other personal circumstances, could form the basis of a harassment case:

- Bullying

Bullying is a complex phenomenon of unwanted offensive and malicious behaviour which undermines an individual or group through persistently negative attacks. There is typically an unpredictable and irrational abuse of power or position that can manifest itself in physical, verbal or non-verbal forms. There is usually an element of vindictiveness attached to bullying and the behaviour is calculated to undermine, patronise, humiliate, intimidate or demean the recipient.

- Stalking

Stalking is a form of harassment. It involves pestering an individual, either in person or in writing or on the telephone. Stalking can also involve following an individual or spying on them, alarming the recipient or causing them distress and may involve violence or fear of violence.

- Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature. It includes unwanted attention of a sexual nature that denigrates or ridicules or is intimidating. This may be physical, ranging from unwanted touching, groping or the invasion of personal space to sexual assault. Sexual harassment can be verbal and may include unwanted personal comments or sexual slurs, belittling, suggestive, lewd or abusive remarks, explicit 'jokes' or innuendo, and compromising invitations. Examples of non-verbal sexual harassment include suggestive looks, leering and explicit gestures.

- Racial Harassment

Racial Harassment is unwanted behaviour based on race, ethnic or national origin. It includes written or verbal threats or insults based on race, ethnicity or skin colour, abusive comments about racial origins, ridicule based on cultural grounds, derogatory name-calling, racist jokes, damage to property, the display of offensive graffiti or insignia and incitement of others to commit any of the above.

- Religious Harassment

Religious harassment is unwanted behaviour based on religious beliefs and practices. This may take many forms including ridiculing items worn for religious reasons, denigrating cultural customs and derisory comments against an individual's beliefs.

- Disability Harassment

Disability harassment is unwanted behaviour based on disability, impairment or additional need. Such behaviour may include comments that are patronising or objectionable to the recipient or which creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment for people with disabilities. Disability harassment includes inappropriate reference to disability, unwelcome discussion of the impact of disability, refusal to work with and exclusion of people with disabilities.

○ Sexual Orientation Harassment

Sexual orientation harassment is unwanted behaviour based on known or presumed sexual orientation. Such behaviour includes name-calling, stereotyping, assault, verbal abuse, actual or threatened unwanted disclosure of sexuality, derogatory comments, excluding same-sex partners from social events or intrusive questioning about a person's domestic circumstances.

○ Cases of Physical Assault

Physical assault is a criminal offence and if you have been attacked, it is important that you seek help immediately.

APPENDIX A

Specific Guide for Students

The school believes that its students have the right to learn in a supportive, caring and safe environment without the fear of being bullied.

What is Child on Child abuse/ Bullying?

Bullying can occur through several types of negative, offensive and persistent antisocial behaviour that may undermine, patronise, intimidate, humiliate, or belittle another person. It can be:

- Physical
A child can be physically punched, kicked, hit or spat at.

- Verbal
Verbal abuse can take the form of name calling. It may be directed towards gender, ethnic origin, physical/social disability or personality.

- Electronic Communication
Sending intimidating or threatening text messages on mobile phones, e-mail, chat rooms or other electronic means.

- Exclusion
A child can be bullied simply by being excluded from discussions/activities, with those they believe to be their friends.

- Damage To Property Or Theft
Students may have their property damaged or stolen. Physical threats may be used by the bully in order that the student hands over property to them.

What Can You Do If You Are Being Bullied?

Remember that your silence is the bully's greatest weapon!

- 1) Tell yourself that you do not deserve to be bullied, and that it is WRONG.
- 2) Be proud of who you are. It is good to be individual.
- 3) Try not to show that you are upset. It is hard but a bully thrives on someone's fear.
- 4) Stay with a group of friends/people. There is safety in numbers.
- 5) Be assertive – shout "No!" Walk confidently away. Go straight to a teacher, this could be your subject teacher, form tutor or Head of Year.
- 6) Fighting back may make things worse. If you decide to fight back, talk to a teacher or parent/guardian first.

- 7) Generally it is best to tell an adult you trust straight away. You will get immediate support.
- 8) Complete the P.O.P.A. form on the college website under the 'students' tab to report if you or a friend is experiencing any form of child on child abuse.

Teachers will take you seriously and will deal with bullies in a way which will end the bullying and will not make things worse for you.

If you know someone is being bullied

- TAKE ACTION! Watching and doing nothing looks as if you are on the side of the bully. It makes the victim feel more unhappy and on their own.
- If you feel you cannot get involved, tell an adult IMMEDIATELY. Teachers have ways of dealing with the bully without getting you into trouble.
- Do not be, or pretend to be, friends with a bully.
- Complete a P.O.P.A. form.

Punishing Bullies

De Lisle College will not tolerate any form of bullying and in the case of a proven offence the College's customary sanctions will be employed up to and including fixed term exclusion.

APPENDIX B

Specific Guide for Parents

Appendix A shows the guidelines given to students regarding bullying.

As a parent:

1. Look for unusual behaviour in your children. For example, they may suddenly not wish to attend school, feel ill regularly, or not complete work to their normal standard.
2. Always take an active role in your child's education. Enquire how their day has gone, who they have spent their time with, how lunch time was spent etc.
3. If you feel your child may be a victim of bullying behaviour, inform the school IMMEDIATELY. Your complaint will be taken seriously and appropriate action will follow.
4. Do not assume that the College knows about the bullying, unless it brought to the Colleges attention it can not be dealt with.
5. It is important that you advise your child not to fight back. It can make matters worse!
6. Tell your own son or daughter there is nothing wrong with him or her. It is not his or her fault that they are being bullied.
7. Make sure your child is fully aware of the College policy concerning bullying, and that they should not be afraid to ask for help.
8. If appropriate, encourage your child to complete a P.O.P.A. form.

Cyber bullying and One-Off Inappropriate Messages

Advice for Teachers and Head Teachers

This information provides suggestions on how to deal with inappropriate messages received by pupils online or on a mobile phone.

Inappropriate messages may take a number of forms such as; cyber bullying, online grooming, negative comments, inappropriate or indecent images, inaccurate information and hate incidents.

Internet providers can trace users through their unique IP addresses and mobile providers will have records of calls and texts made, but that won't stop some people from assuming they are posting content anonymously.

Action to be taken

The nature of the message determines the action to be taken as suggested below:

- contact the Local Authority – Children's Social Care need to know when a child has been harmed or is at risk of significant harm (see LSCB procedures)
- contact Broadband provider about filtering (they will block inappropriate sites that have got through the system)
- contact the Police – when a crime has or may have been committed and needs investigation or where you are concerned about threats made to a child's safety & well being
- use the CEOP "report abuse" button – this is the same as referring to police and is there for the young person as well as their teachers

What should be said to a pupil or the class?

- respond to the nature of the incident and give advice about privacy, risky behaviour and unknown online contacts
- use Thinkuknow resources and address the issues in assembly

When/how should the Head Teacher be informed?

- Head Teachers have the power to regulate behaviour offsite including cyber bullying
- take a robust approach

- involve parents
- use Acceptable Use Policies
- encourage the perpetrator to remove offensive posting from the web

Are recording/monitoring mechanisms in place?

- all incidents – minor or serious will be recorded on Go4Schools

Role of the e-safety co-ordinator

- monitor incidents, evaluate, review and implement e-safety developments

Preventative work

E.g. safety/cyber bullying education

- help children and young people understand what to do when they receive inappropriate messages
- pupils must learn how to manage online risks and also how to use technology responsibly
- provide information for parents / carers
