REMEMBRANCE

32nd Week in Ordinary Time

SCRIPT FOR STAFF

- 1) Let's take a moment to prepare for prayer.
- 2) Pause.
- 3) Let's make that sign together that reminds us we meet in the presence of Jesus. In the name of the Father, and of the son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
- 4) Prayer begins (Hand over to the two students).
- 5) Finish the prayer with the sign of the cross.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit Amen.

Lord of life and love,
as we give thanks for times past,
grant us courage to embrace the present and grace to share the future.

In memory of loved ones dear, kindle their flame to shine in the dark and light the path ahead.

Show the way that leads to life
as we cherish days gone by and inspire us with the touch of love that faith and hope live on.

We make this prayer through Christ Our Lord
Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit Amen.

The word of the week is....

REMEMBRANCE

Remembrance is an important part of our faith. We remember the saints, those who have died, and the events of our history.

Remembrance helps us to reflect on how those who've gone before us have shaped and inspired our lives today.

The word of the week is....

TUE

REMEMBRANCE

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

As we begin this new week together in form we pray our college prayer together:

May the Lord bless us and keep us,

May He make His face to shine upon us and be gracious to us,

May the Lord lift up His countenance upon us and grant us His peace,

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,

Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

One God forever and ever,

Amen.

YOUR MISSION

Your mission this week is to pray for the souls who have died, whether they have died recently or those who died a long time ago.

There is a book of Remembrance outside of the Chaplaincy office for you to write the name of those who have died which you want to remember.

TUE

REMEMBRANCE.

Lord Jesus,

We pray today, especially those who have died in war and conflict around the world.

Lord, may you be the source of comfort for those who are mourning, those who have no family, those who are suffering.

We pray for the souls who have died from conflict and violence as we say together:

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O LORD,

And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace, Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”

Joshua 1:9

We start our time of prayer

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit Amen.

DISCUSSION TIME

- Did you learn anything new from the video?
- Discuss with the person next to you, what you found interesting from the video?

We end our time of prayer asking Mary our Mother to pray for a more peaceful and just world with no more war as we pray...

Hail, Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou amongst women
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.

Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit Amen.

REMEMBRANCE

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace: for the service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God; May God give peace.

Response: God give peace.

For those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss;
May God give peace.

Response: God give peace.

For all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return; May God give peace.

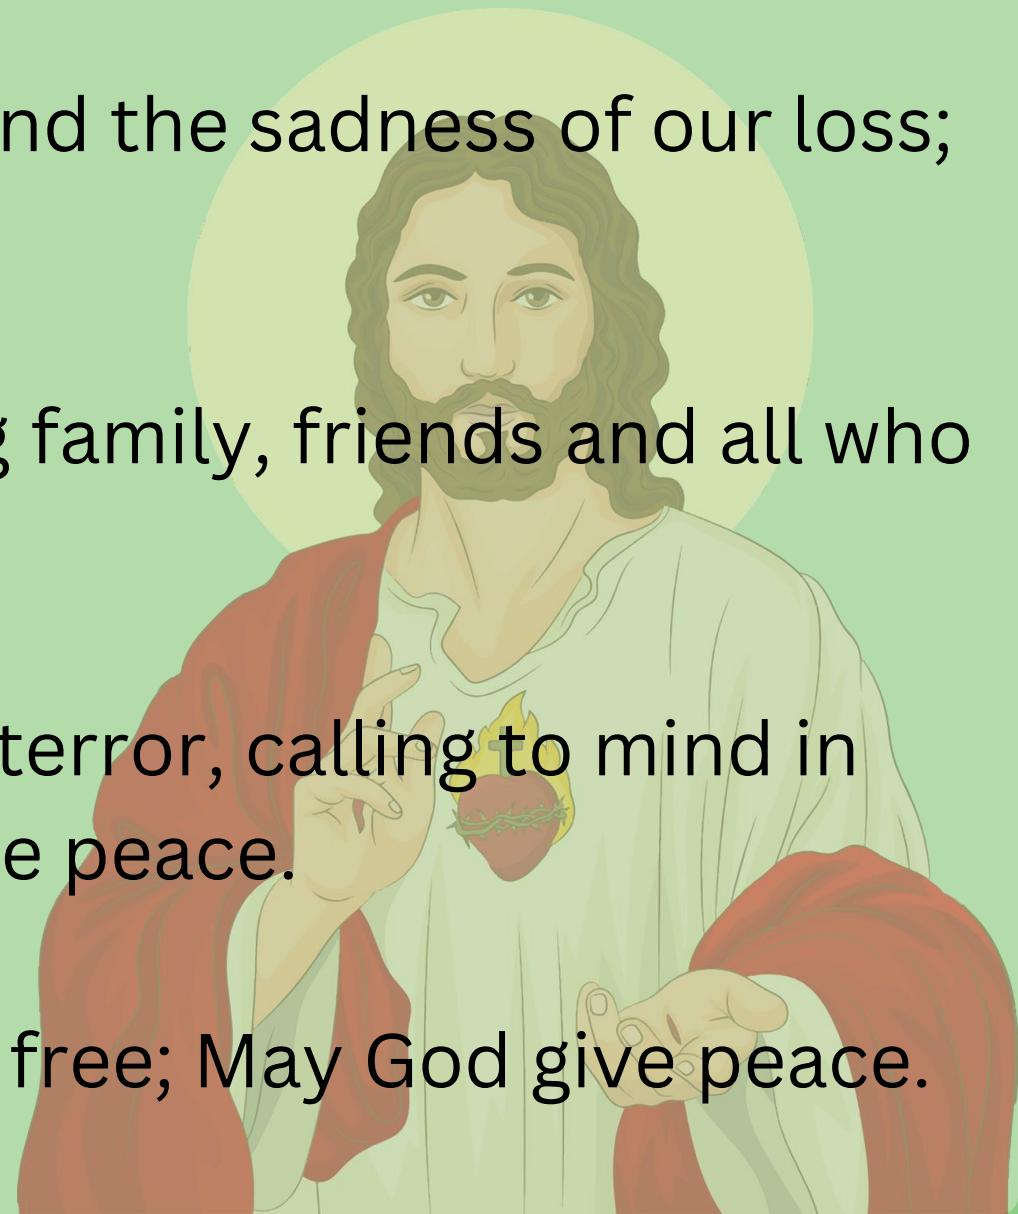

Response: God give peace.

For civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, calling to mind in penitence the anger and hatreds of humanity; May God give peace.

Response: God give peace.

For peacemakers and peacekeepers, who seek to keep this world secure and free; May God give peace.

Response: God give peace.

REMEMBRANCE

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Response: Glory to you O Lord

"All this I have spoken while still with you.
But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.
Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

The Gospel of the Lord

Response: Praise to you Lord Jesu Christ

Talk with the person next to you...

- What stands out to you from the Gospel reading?
- "My peace I give you" - what do you think this means?

We end our time of prayer
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit
Amen.

FRI

REMEMBRANCE:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Thank you, loving God,
for the gift of life,
for this wonderful world which we all share,
for the joy of love and friendship,
for the challenge of helping to build your kingdom.

Strengthen our determination to work for a world of peace and justice, my conviction that, whatever our nationality or race, we are all global citizens, one in Christ.

Strengthen our courage to challenge the powerful with the virtues of the Gospel:

Strengthen our commitment to find nonviolent ways of resolving conflict
Amen.

“God is our refuge and strength; a very present
help in trouble.”

Psalm 46.1

DISCUSSION TIME

Discuss how you have completed
this week's mission?

This week's was to pray for the souls who have died, whether they have died recently or those who died a long time ago.

Let us pray

Lord, we thank you for the gift of this week. We thank you for the many conversations we had with you and those around us. We ask you to continue shaping us as your disciples as we follow your voice.

We make this prayer in the Holy name of Jesus
Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit Amen.
