This assessment will test my knowledge on...

Small Island

- My understanding of 'Small Island'
- How to analyse a text
- How to write clearly and coherently in structured paragraphs
- How to discuss characters and themes
- The context of the play
- Skills we've learnt this year

Mastery Writing

- Planning and writing an article, letter or speech in response to a statement.
- Using the 5 paragraph structure (introduction, because, but, so, conclusion).
- Using rhetorical devices and sentence models.
- Writing accurately in terms of spelling, grammar and punctuation.

What should I do to revise and prepare for this assessment?

To prepare for the Small Island assessment:

1. Re-read your annotations/practice paragraphs for 'Small Island' you've studied
2. Practise writing paragraphs about characters and themes using because, specifically and almost as though.
3. Create revision pages for characters and themes
4. Use your 'Small Island' revision booklet

To prepare for the mastery writing assessment:

1. Revise the sentence models and rhetorical devices and practise using these.
2. Reread the models and your own articles, letters and speeches in your yellow book.
3. Practise writing articles, letters and speeches about topics of your choice.
